March 7: Join Yanis Varoufakis, Katie Halper and other guests in Brussels – ‘WTF Happened to Europe? How We Lost It and What We Must Do’

Brussels, Thursday, 30 January 2025

Europe is in crisis. Soaring rents, precarious jobs, climate inaction, and even wars—these are the nightmares the EU was supposed to prevent. Instead, undemocratic institutions have let capitalism chew away at democracy, leaving a continent divided and struggling.

On Friday, March 7th, join us at the National Theater in Brussels as we confront a critical question: WTF happened to Europe? How We Lost It and What We Must Do. Yanis Varoufakis and a panel of bold, uncompromising voices, including Katie Halper and other special guests, will lead a fearless and unflinching discussion on Europe’s challenges and the way forward.

This isn’t just a conversation. It’s a rallying cry.

Ten years ago, we founded DiEM25 to stop the nightmare we feared was coming. Now, we’re calling on everyone ready to fight for an independent and proud Europe—one that champions justice, peace, and cooperation for the common good of humanity.

What to Expect

This event will feature voices from politics, activism, and the arts as we shine a spotlight on the EU’s darkest truths and chart a path to a brighter future. Together, we’ll confront the failures that brought us here and imagine a Europe that serves its people, fostering unity rather than division, both within and beyond its borders.

This Is the Start of Something Bigger

We're not just gathering to talk—we're building momentum. This is a call to action to reclaim Europe from the forces that have betrayed it.
